

The Global Education Centre

The Global Education Centre's Community programme provides a range of free services to support ongoing exploration of global issues:

GEC:News

Global Bits

Library

A bi-monthly e-newsletter from the Global Education Centre, for youth workers, educators or those working with young people, who may be interested in including a global perspective in their work. Our aim is to keep you updated on developments, provide you with information on global education, showcase projects, and provide you with interesting and relevant information to assist you in exploring issues that impact on young people in a globalising world.

A quarterly publication providing the community with information and ideas for exploring global issues and how they impact on individuals and communities. It also includes a poster with activity suggestions for those working as community educators throughout Aotearoa New Zealand.

The Global Education Centre along with its sister programme Dev-Zone provides a free library service to the Public. The GEC Community/youth programme has a focus on sourcing relevant and interesting multi media resources for use in youth work and community education settings.
